

Cr-065093-18 Theft Of Livestock-Sheep

Police are asking anyone with information to come forward following a report of the theft of sheep from a farm in Doddiscombeleigh.near Exeter. Chains to the barn were cut and the sheep were sorted, as any lame ewes were left.

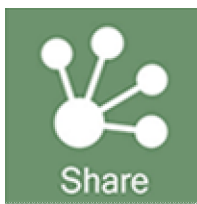

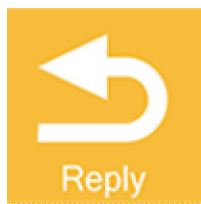

It is estimated that the sheep have a value of £32.000 needing several trips to load them all.

Farms are asked to be vigilant and check stock on a more regular basis. Anyone with information regarding this crime is asked to email 101@dc.police.uk call 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111 quoting CR/065093/18

Message Sent By

Shirley Craft (Police, Community Messaging Officer, Devon & Cornwall)

To reply or forward this email please use the buttons below or these links: Reply, Rate, Forward / Share.

To login to your account, click here, To report a fault, click here

